

RINA is a multinational company providing a wide range of services in the energy, marine, certification, infrastructure & mobility, industry, real estate. With revenues in 2023 of 797 million euros, over 5,800 employees and 200 offices in 70 countries around the world, the company participates in major international organizations, consistently contributing to the development of new regulatory standards. RINA is a founding member of the International Association of Classification Societies (IACS), an association founded in 1968 that includes the twelve most relevant ship classification societies in the world

Founded in 1861 as a ship classification society, RINA began diversifying its activities in the 1990s. Its mission is to support stakeholders throughout the value chain, with a strong focus on energy transition, digitization, and ESG sustainability.

From a corporate perspective, Registro Italiano Navale holds the majority of shares in RINA, the group's holding company. Up to 33% of shares are owned by Fondo Italiano d'Investimento and a pool of co-investors led by it, with the remaining 2.5% held by the company's management. RINA fully owns RINA Services and RINA Consulting, which provide certification, inspection, testing, and engineering consulting services directly or through their subsidiaries. Additionally, RINA owns 50% of RINA Prime Value Services, a company operating in real estate services with a focus on technical and real estate valuation and certification.

